WHAT IS CAPITALINES MAGAZINE?

Capitalines is the official publication of The Junior League of Austin (JLA). This full-color magazine is distributed twice a year. It highlights JLA news and events as well as community partners, including nonprofits, programs and leaders. It also serves as a public relations tool throughout the year.

WHO RECEIVES THE PUBLICATION?

Advertising in Capitalines gets your business in front of Austin's top movers and shakers.

The publication is mailed to JLA active, provisional and sustainer members, sponsors and donors, and a carefully curated list of the Greater Austin area's top businesses and community leaders.

Capitalines digital edition is also posted online at www.jlaustin.org/press-room/capitalines and distributed via the JLA's email and social media channels.

WHAT IS INCLUDED IN THE MAGAZINE?

The fall issue showcases JLA's community impact, features community partners and donors and highlight the annual A Christmas Affair event. This issue has a circulation of 3,000. Fall ad placements are also automatically included in the A Christmas Affair Shopping Guide, which has a circulation of 22,000. This additional publication is distributed to all attendees of A Christmas Affair.

The Spring issue serves as an impact report, summarizing financial, donor and volunteer information. It highlights successes from the year and bridges outgoing and incoming leadership programs. This issue has a circulation of 3,500.

Your Investment

Though your ad isn't tax deductible, it supports one of the most impactful non-profit organizations in Central Texas and allows you to market your product or service to our highly desirable demographic.

Benefits include:

- Publication printed and mailed to 3,500 subscribers per issue
- Distributed to 22,000+ A Christmas Affair attendees (for fall placement)
- Ad is included in digital edition, with link to advertiser's website
- Premium ads include mention + link in one JLA membership e-blast.
