December 10, 2018 (Austin, TX) – The Junior League of Austin (JLA) is pleased to present the third annual Austin Entertains, sponsored by the Nyle Maxwell Family of Dealerships, a culinary experience celebrating Austin’s top female chefs. The “who’s who” event features tastings from the women who are leading Austin’s culinary scene, signature cocktails from local bartenders, craft beer & local wine tastings, live music, and more. This year’s event takes place on February 28 at Fair Market in the vibrant east Austin area and provides essential funding to programs such as FIT – Food in Tummies, along with over 30 other community non-profits.

This year’s theme “Glamping in the Desert” will transport guests to a laid-back oasis for the night as they taste and sip their way through Austin. Featuring full use of Fair Market’s indoor and outdoors spaces, the event is sure to please die-hard foodies and casual grazers alike with plenty of the best food and drink options in the city, in addition to new entertainment options for the event to be announced soon.

Tickets are available now, including VIP and general admission options. VIP ticket holders are invited for an exclusive early tasting beginning at 6:30 p.m., as well as access to the VIP lounge, complimentary valet, and a choice swag bag. General admission entry begins at 7 p.m. to enjoy the included bites, signature drinks and tastings; as well as entertainment, including a live band, silent auction, and much more, all supporting JLA’s mission.
